

We can't allow people to be deported for misdemeanors. What is happening to Wayzaro Walton is an example of how families are separated because of the intersection between unjust immigration laws and the criminalization of black and brown folks in our community.