

To the Commissioners-

I urge you to follow the progressive lead of other states - Oregon, California, Nevada, Washington - in adjusting the maximum sentence for Crimes of Moral Turpitude. By changing the maximum number of days from 365 to 364, you will promote greater opportunity for these offenses to be fairly prosecuted and defended. Doing so will make Connecticut a leader in fairness and justice in matters of the law.

Respectfully submitted,

Winifred T. Gordon Mansfield CT
